

ST. LOUIS Y. M. C. A. RE-ELECTS

LAMM, JONES, WEINBRENNER AND SLATER WIN NOMINATIONS—FIGHT ON RALPH TURNER—L. S. WILLIAMS LOSES COMMITTEE FIGHT.

The primary election which was held at this city last Tuesday was perhaps most interesting one that has been held in St. Louis, in many years. There were many factions, as well as individuals, out contending for their favorite candidates. The majority of the Negroes voted for Judge Lamm for governor.

He was chosen the Republican nominee by a large majority.

The candidates who were lined up with the Koola-Stifel faction were generally the lucky ones, thus showing the power and influence Mr. Koola has in St. Louis politics. Judge Lamm was Mr. Koola's choice.

The Negro Voters Protective League

This organization played an important part in the election. Having made the best slate, and picked more winners than any other organization in the city. Winners on their slate were: Judge Lamm for governor, Roy R. Hughes for Lieutenant Governor, George E. Mackmann for State Auditor, Alfred A. Vitt for State Treasurer; Edward Hughes for Judge of Supreme Court, Division No. 2; J. H. Bates for Representative in Congress for Eleventh Congressional District; L. C. Dyer for Representative in Congress for Twelfth Congressional District; Leo B. Roper for Representative in Congress for Thirteenth Congressional District; W. E. Hartman, Vital W. Garcesch, John W. Calhoun, Victor H. Falkenstein, Wilson A. Taylor for Judges of the Circuit Court for the Eighth Judicial Circuit.

$5,000 Toward Grand Moonlight New Y. M. C. A. River Excursion

Announcement has just been made that a check for $5,000 toward the Y. M. C. A. for Governor has been made. The last few days have been busy for the treasurer of the Y. M. C. A. from the Pullman Company. This contribution is credited on the $75,000, which the Metropolitan Board of Directors has received for the Colored Branch, as Mr. Hanford Crawford, the president of the Board of Directors, and Mr. Philomena Blevins, general secretary, have received from the St. Louis Young Men's Christian Association, made a special trip to Chicago for the purpose of enlisting the Pullman Company's interest in the project.

An interesting story of the genuine enthusiasm of the Pullman employees for the Y. M. C. A. is attached to this gift. In the campaign, which was held in December, the Pullman employees made a fine showing as workers on teams and as contributors toward the Building Fund. The total subscriptions from Pullman men went to a figure beyond $10,000, and in a number of instances these subscriptions have been paid at the regular time of payment. A large number of employees have signed their intention of paying the pledge in the month of August and on September 1. The Pullman employees sent to the company a petition setting forth the interest which the St. Louis Porters, among over 600, had in this new Y. M. C. A. project. Their petition for a gift was indorsed to the district superintendent, Mr. Durr. Doubtless their petition and certain interest had great weight in helping the company to decide to give $5,000 toward the new branch building. This is most unusual in view of the fact that never before has the Pullman Company made a gift to an institution of this kind outside of Chicago.

The Board of Managers of the Colored Branch Young Men's Christian Association, which has charge of the collection of the money for the new building, announces that nearly $10,000 has been collected for the new building and the Board of Managers confidently expects that the collection will take a few more days, as a number of men are working with the secretary of the St. Louis Porters. Indeed the Pullman Company's contribution has stimulated already the employees of the company in making their payment. One of the oldest employees in the company, who resides in St. Louis came on Tuesday, and finished up his pledge, expressing the confidence that the other men would follow.

ODD FELLOWS LAWN SOCIAL

What promises to be the most enjoyable affair of its kind this season is the select lawn social to be given by the Odd Fellows of St. Louis at the household of Ruth on the spacious lawn at 4431 Cottage Avenue, Friday, August 11, beginning at 7 p. m. Refreshments, such as barbecued meats, fried fish, ice cream, etc., will be served and a select band will furnish the best of music.

Chancellor J. Krueger for Judge of the St. Louis Court of Criminal Correction; Robert C. Jones for Circuit Attorney for city of St. Louis; Geo. P. Weinbrener for Sheriff for city of St. Louis; Frank M. Slater for Public Administrator for City of St. Louis; Rudolph S. Vitt for Coroner for City of St. Louis.

The contest in the seventeenth ward for committeeman between L. S. Williams and Hon. Frank M. Slater (who was quite interesting) and while Negroes polled seventy-five per cent of the votes, Mr. Slater won by more than two to one, over Mr. Williams.

Those who claim to know the game say that the Negroes are ready and willing to support a member of their party for the good of all the people, but they are opposed to a "one man" candidate, claiming that Ralph Turner was the chief factor behind the movement. The political leaders among the Negroes declare that they will have nothing to do with Turner's politics, but they will support him, regardless of "who it hurts." This has caused a great loss of votes for Mr. Slater in the past, and while they all maintain the highest regard for Mr. Williams, they were sorry he was not the selection of the people. This election has changed the situation and complexion of politics among the Negroes. Only a very few Negroes voted the Democratic ticket at the primaries.

Grand Moonlight River Excursion

STANDARD LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

2363 Market Street

A change in the agency directorship in the local office of the Standard Life Insurance Company, of Atlantic City, has just been announced by the secretary of the company, Mr. H. H. Pace. Mr. G. H. Peering, who has come to our city recently, has been named as our new office, succeeding Mr. C. R. Robinson, who has had charge ever since the office was located here, about three years ago. Mr. Peering has associated with him Mr. T. A. Dickson, as special representative, and these two hustling young men have won the confidence and good will of the community, and it is safe to predict for them much success.

TILLMAN DECLARES AGAINST SLAVERY

Washington, July 29.—"I never believed it possible that I could do it, but slowly and by degrees I have come to think that it was best for all concerned that the South was defeated," said Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, during passage of a bill dealing with Arlington National Cemetery.

"Slavery," he continued, "was a curse which had to be destroyed ever the South and the world could advance. It was a curse for which the South was no more responsible than the North. Both sections were responsible and both paid for long years of blood and penance for their joint sin."

"Slavery had to go and while it went in the worst possible way and its going gave birth to an apparently unbreakable problem, still I, who was born in and of the old South, am glad it is gone never to return. I am glad, also, that the idea of nationality has supplanted that of confederacy despite the danger involved. And so, I can find it in my heart to want to make the amphitheater at Arlington truly national in its scope."

The following is the roster of officers: G. W. C. G. Mrs. Bertha T. Buckner, 4041 Cook Ave., St. Louis; G. W. C. G. Mrs. Lena White, Fulton; G. W. C. G. Mrs. Cora A. Conway, Cape Girardeau; G. W. C. Garden Symposium Takes New Life

The Lane Tabernacle Carnival at Garden Symposium, 4013-15 Fairfax, has taken on a new life. New and better attractions have been added. The free shows of the wonderful acrobat are creating a sensation. The Moving Pictures are also a drawing card. Come and enjoy yourselves.

There are yet left a few more concessions that can be procured by consulting C. G. Jones. The Symposium is an ideal place to spend the warm summer nights, after the laboriousness of these hot summer days, amidst cooling refreshments, etc. The Symposium will continue indefinitely for the specific purpose of those who are desirous of spending a pleasant evening. The music has embellished the performances greatly and has been a pleasing feature of the Symposium.

Proclamation No. 1

July 31, 1916.

To the Grand Lodge Officers and Members, Chancellor Commanders and Members of all Subordinate Lodges:

Greeting:

The Grand Lodge Session just closed at Macon, Missouri, was well attended and general satisfaction with conditions was demonstrated by the fact that it is the first session for many years that no New Laws were passed. The Order is in splendid condition, all things considered, and we are looking forward to great preparations for the entertainment of the Supreme Lodge in St. Louis in 1917.

The 3-year law on the office of Grand Vice-Chancellor was held to be void by me as the matter had been submitted to the Supreme Chancellor for a decision, and this ruling was sustained by the Committee on Law and Supervision, and approved on roll call by a large majority of the Grand Lodge Officers and Representatives.

The matter now rests until the meeting of the Supreme Lodge in 1917.

The officers elected for 1916-1917: A. W. Lloyd, Grand Chancellor, 3137 Pine St., St. Louis, Mo.; Grand Vice-Chancellor, Prof. A. C. MacIn, Hannibal, Mo.; Grand Prelate, Arthur Robinson, 3006 Market St., St. Louis, Mo.; Grand Keeper of Records and Seal, W. T. Ansell, 3287 Pine St., St. Louis, Mo.; Grand Master of Exchequer, Prof. J. B. Coleman, Columbia, Mo.; Grand Lecturer, Prof. B. F. Adams, Festus, Mo.; Grand Medical Register, Dr. W. S. Carrion, 1019 Francis St., St. Joseph, Mo.; Grand Master at Arms, Albert M. Oliver, Box 175, Cape Girardeau, Mo.; Grand Inner Guard, J. T. Ansell, Macon, Mo.; Grand Inner Guard, N. E. Brunson, Neelyville, Mo.

The next session of the Grand Lodge will be held in Hannibal, Mo., and I urge each Lodge to strive to be represented at that session.

The minutes of the session just closed will be published and distributed as soon as possible, in which the transactions of the Grand Lodge and reports of officers will be given in detail.

I join all loyal members of the Order in best wishes for prosperity, harmony and peace within the borders of our Grand Domain, and a continued march onward and upward.

Done at my office in the City of St. Louis, Missouri, the year and day first above written.

Attest:

W. T. Ansell, G. K. of E. and S. A. W. LLOYD, Grand Chancellor.

A. W. LLOYD'S RE-ELECTED GRAND CHANCELLOR

THREE YEAR LIMIT LAW HELD IN ABEYANCE BY GRAND LODGE, PENDING SESSIONS OF THE SUPREME LODGE.

At the Grand Lodge Session held at Macon, Mo., July 25th to 28th, inclusive, the Representatives and Officers repudiated the efforts of certain men to defeat A. W. Lloyd for Grand Chancellor to succeed himself, by an overwhelming vote.

Three years ago a resolution was adopted limiting the consecutive terms of a Grand Chancellor to three years. Unknown to the schemers, Mr. Lloyd submitted the new law to the Supreme Lodge on its constitutionality at the Columbus Session last year.

The Supreme Lodge referred the matter to its General Committee, where it is still pending, subject to compliance with certain requirements of the Supreme Chancellor, and it was these grounds that the Grand Lodge very properly declared the law inoperative.

Fraternal Journals, and the press in general have shown greatly interested in the Missouri question and the fight on A. W. Lloyd, and many editorials have been written on the subject, experts from some of them being here appearing.

Praternal Informer, Phila., Pa.

"It appears that the members of the Grand Lodge of P. M. Mo., have fallen in the wake of their white counterparts, much to the regret of the members of their sister states. A. W. Lloyd, the Grand Chancellor, whom it has been denied, took hold of the Order in Missouri, when it was under the weight of human selfishness, but his racial and fraternal pride, within all Generals, caused him to take the reins of government and go forward like a gale of wind travelling at the rate of 60 miles an hour, until he brought the Grand Jurisdiction of Mo., to a station on progressive's railway, where she is justified in boasting that 'we trail behind none.'"

Grand Master, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"Hon. A. W. Lloyd, Grand Chancellor of Missouri, has issued a circular showing $241,464.91 paid to Beneficent from the Endowment Fund. The circular contains several commendatory letters on the administration of Sir Lloyd, which indicates that the law which would force the retirement of the great Missouri leader was unwise and should be repealed. Sir Lloyd has been through a few storms while piloting the Pythian ship in Missouri, but he has weathered them all, and brought her to the port of success, none will deny."

The Home Protective Record, Hannibal, Mo., Topka Plains Dealer, Topeka, Kansas, The Search Light, Sedalia, Mo., The Western Messenger, Jefferson City, Mo., The Richmond Planet, Richmond, Virginia, The St. Louis Argus and Fraternal Clarion of St. Louis, and other papers have spoken in praise of the work of Grand Chancellor Lloyd, condemning the unfair methods used in attempting to defeat him for re-election.

The Missouri State Insurance Examination closed their report on the results of the Knights of Pythias of Missouri, October, 1915, in the following language:

Grand Attorney, L. A. Knox, Kansas City, Mo.

Past Grand Chancellor, Jas. P. Maynard, Kansas City, Mo.

Supreme Representative, C. K. Robinson and Dr. T. A. Curtis, St. Louis, Mo.

I call upon every member of the jurisdiction to rally to the support of his Lodge in order that we may not only maintain our high standing, but show decided improvement by the time the Supreme Lodge meets.

All death dues are paid promptly. There are 96 Subordinate Lodges with a Grand Lodge in Missouri.

Special-Jackson, Miss., July 22.—The Mississippi General Mission Baptist Convention which has been in session here during the week presided over by Dr. A. M. Johnson, by unanimous vote the convention withdrew the hand of fellowship from the Rev. Dr. E. P. Jones, of Vicksburg, and Dr. G. W. Gayles, of Greenville, declaring them in disorder with the Baptists of the states.

Last Tuesday, Dr. Jones, and Rev. Gayles, assisted by Rev. R. H. Boyd, of St. Louis, and Dr. Clark, of Nashville, left the convention rented the American Theatre, and proceeded to organize another convention, growing out of the split of the National Baptist convention trouble last September in Chicago, Ill.

The Mississippi convention, representing 250,000 Negro Baptists refused to indorse the movement of Dr. Jones, but rather condemned his course. Only 18 followed Dr. Jones and Gayles out of the convention and five returned the following day and asked forgiveness. They were told to "Go in peace and sin no more."

Dr. Jones was very much disappointed at the turnout which he received in his own home. He had hoped to have carried a large following from Mississippi to Kansas City where he will hold his convention.

The convention adopted resolutions pledging support to the National Baptist convention which meets September 6 in Savannah, Ga. Dr. E. C. Morris, president.

MISS LILLIAN KNIGHT, Alton, Illinois

At a recent church contest for the most popular young lady in Alton the people by their votes conferred that honor upon Miss Lillian Knight.

At the graduating exercises of the high school last June, Miss Knight was the only one of our race to receive a diploma, and is said (by her instructor), to be one of the most brilliant scholars of her class.

Miss Knight was a delegate to the Sunday-school convention at Jackson, Mo., where she was elected assistant secretary of the state. She is also a teacher in the Primary Department of the A. M. E. Sunday-school.

Mr. Conrad Knight, the father, is a well-known K. of P. and is very popular throughout the state. Her present mother is a St. Louis lady, her own mother having died three years ago.

Miss Knight is seventeen years of age.

PROVIDENCE BAPTIST NOTES We go to press upon the urgent request of friends. We are glad to say to all well wishers that our church is on a safe foundation, due to the faithful work of the leaders of ten states. We should ever remember with gratitude the inspiring address delivered by Prof. J. W. Hughes, of Lincoln High School, East St. Louis, and Rev. P. C. Parker. The choir at Providence is rapidly coming to the front, several new members having been added. Our church is making many new friends in the city and the day is not far away when she will be in the front rank, due largely to the indefatigable efforts of our experienced leader in the person of Rev. E. C. Cole and his faithful Board of Officers. If you want to hear one of the greatest preachers in the city come to our church at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. say Sunday. We have organized a "Brotherhood" in our church and Rev. Jas. Rodgers is president and a "Bible Bee" Club, of which Sister Nora Bolus is president. The Brotherhood meets the first and third Tuesday nights at 8 p. m. The next meeting will be on the 15th of August.

LANE TABERNACLE NOTES Rev. N. E. Smith, pastor, after spending a few days in Paducah, Ky., attending the great convention of the Fourth Episcopal District C. M. E. Church, of which Bishop C. H. Phillips presides, reports the meeting a great success. More than $5,000 raised. Sunday is Communion and Pastor Smith will preach both morning and evening. His subject for 11 a. m., "The God-head of Christ." At 3 p. m. subject, "Christ suffering, refused alleviation." Members are urged to be present. Visitors and friends are always welcome.

the Lord Jesus

By REV. J. H. RALSTON
Secretary of Correspondence Department,
Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT.—We exhort you by the Lord Jesus that as ye have received of us how often to walk to and to please God, so ye would avoid more and more these evil.

It is only to the meaning of the two words "Lord Jesus," that attention should be given.

They are not very frequent occurrences in the New Testament, but sufficiently so to indicate that their meaning is very significant. They peculiarly interest Christians, but they have as well a very deep significance for those who are not Christians; for to such persons the son of God will appear as Lord, and the acceptance of such will depend on their treatment of him as Jesus.

The Son of God is Savior. The attitude of the son of God to the present time is that of directly inviting attention is that of savior, which is the meaning of the word Jesus. The term savior at once implies that there is something from which a man is saved, and we may note briefly that the son of God has saved, first, from the consequences of sin in this life as in the life to come. Whether one is saved as to the future penalty or not, he is not saved from the consequences of sin in this life, the law of Galatians 6:7 obtaining in the case of the regenerate man as in the case of the unregenerate. "Whoever a man sows, shall he also reap." There is a beyond; there is eternal death to the one that is not saved from it; and the son of God saves from that. Hell is not a myth; nor eternal exclusion from the presence of God; they are realities and the son of God came to save men from these on the simple condition of faith.

Jesus saves also from the power of Satan. This salvation applies very largely to this life, for after a man believes and is justified Satan's grip on him loosens—he is no longer his Lord. The man is legally free, and after the struggles of this life are over, he will be perfectly free. The son of God also saves from the power of sin. In the unregenerate state a man is the slave of sin, but when he is saved by the grace of God, slavery is practically gone. A new life enters and persists, and never gives up until it is victorious, and so the subject of this struggle enters the other world free from not only the penalty, but from the power of Satan and sin—his salvation is perfect.

Son of God as Lord. But possibly the work of the son of God as savior will so absorb attention that man forgets that the son of God is Lord as well. When on earth Jesus said: "Ye call me Lord and master and so I am." The moment a man is saved spiritually, that moment he comes under the control of another Lord, the son of God. This lordship must be supreme, reaching to the whole of man.

The body is to be preserved as under the lordship of Jesus Christ. As well must the intellect also acknowledge this lordship; a spiritual man must yield his thoughts to those of God. Equally so must his affections or desires be in subjection. He cannot love what his Lord does not love; nor hate what his Lord does not hate. Here is the place where Christians easily fail, many of them having loves that belong to the world, and in just so far they deny their savior's lordship. Equally so must the will be in subjection; the Christian has no right to his own will. The supreme moment of the earthly career of our Lord was when he said: "Not my will, but thine, be done."

Time, Influence and Wealth. While all a man's personality is embraced in the things just noted, it is well to note that a man's time is not his own, for it is only in the lapse of time that his personality can operate. If the Lord says "Come," the Christian must work; if he says "rest," the Christian must rest; and possibly a man can sin as really in disobeying the latter command as the former. Naturally, too, a man's influence must acknowledge the lordship of the son of God; "No man liveth unto himself, and no man dieth unto himself." A man's proper consideration of his influence will often enable him to judge as to right action in connection with his body, mind, affections or will. It is not always a question when a certain action is before one for consideration whether this will injure or benefit the individual, but what will be its influence on others. Certainly, also, this lordship extends to material possessions.

There is no knowledge for which so great a price is paid as a knowledge of the world; and no one ever became as content in it except at the expense of a harvest of tears and a wounded heart.—Augustine of Hippo.

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE LESSON

(By E. O. BELLER, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)
(Copyright, 1915, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR AUG. 6 GREATEST THING IN THE WORLD.

(Temperance Lesson.)

True ministry is in the exercise of spiritual gifts (Eph. 4:7-15). Every believer is a member of the body of Christ, and therefore has a definite ministry. Though the gifts are diverse, all are equally honorable because they are bestowed, administered and energized by the Holy Spirit. Love alone gives value to the ministry of any gift.

I. Fill the Gift With Love (vs. 1-3). Love suffices love. Love is the ruling soul abides in and inspires it; so is the gift unless filled with the spirit of love. This is the "more excellent way" to which the apostle refers at the conclusion of Chapter 12. In praising love Paul does not fall into the error of criticizing others, not even his followers, and suggests that even he may be wanting in this trait. The Corinthians were eager to attain excellence and to be prominent in wisdom and philosophy; to understand the world in which they lived; to be scholars and teachers and improve and correct society. Paul therefore shows how vain are such things unless filled with the motive of love. (1) The gift of tongues. The saints in the church at Corinth seem to have been particularly gifted in this direction. Paul rebuked them for boasting of sin in this life as in the life to come. Whether one is saved as to the future penalty or not, he is not saved from the consequences of sin in this life, the law of Galatians 6:7 obtaining in the case of the regenerate man as in the case of the unregenerate. "Whoever a man sows, shall he also reap." There is a beyond; there is eternal death to the one that is not saved from it; and the son of God saves from that. Hell is not a myth; nor eternal exclusion from the presence of God; they are realities and the son of God came to save men from these on the simple condition of faith.

II. Love Is Known by Its Manifestations (vs. 4-7). Having shown the absolute necessity of love Paul shows how we may recognize it. The behavior of love can be seen and known. Paul set for us 15 manifestations. (1) Love is patient. Love is not easily provoked to anger, but is patient, but a fixed thought. (2) It is kind. Kindness in action, love is kind. (3) Love envies not. It does not grow out of selfishness, but is the very opposite of love. (4) Love vaunteth not itself, does not climb to the heights to proclaim its glory. (5) It is not puffed up. There is no inflation, like a soap bubble, to dazzle the eye. (6) Does not behave itself unseemly, that is without delicate feeling. Unseemly conduct grows from pride and selfishness, whereas love is the foundation of true love. (7) Seeketh not her own. Is not looking out for self first at all. It is not easily provoked; good tempered, not irritable. To lose one's temper is a dangerous evil. The evil is not so much the temper but in our failure to control it. (8) Thinketh no evil. Puts the best construction upon the acts of others, making all possible allowances. (9) Rejoiceth not in iniquity. (10) Rejoiceth in the truth, that is, in its sympathy with all that is true. (11) Beareth all things; endureth hard and cruel words. (12) Believeth all things; not credulous but putting the best construction upon the words of others, and having faith in the final outcome of every good cause. (13) Hopeth all things; is not discouraged in the dark and shadowy days. (14) Endureth all things; it goes on believing and hoping to the end; no obstacle can stop it. Surely such a catalogue of the marks of love is enough to make us all pause and meditate.

III. The Permanence of Love (vs. 8-13). The word "faileth" here denotes failing in the sense of cessation, and love is contrasted with three typical but passing forms of Christian expression. (1) "Prophecies," not the things prophesied but the gift or act of prophesying (vs. 8), which at best can only partially express God's word. Prophecy will pass away in the fuller vision and wider knowledge of God (vs. 9). (2) "Tongues," the time will come when they will not be needed as a sign or to enable us to express our varied emotions. The divinely inspired prophecies tell but a part of what is yet to be. (3) "Knowledge." It shall be done away in the fuller knowledge of the eternal world as the light of the stars vanishes before the rising sun. When that which is perfect is come these things will be seen to be only like the separate stones of a quarry which can only be fully understood when the whole building stands before us in its completed. Paul gives an illustration of this truth from the familiar case of the growing child (vs. 11, 12). In conclusion (vs. 13) faith, hope, love abideth, three graces, imperishable and immortal. "Hope is a fountain; faith draws the water and drink; love distributes the water to others," Dr. J. H. Jowett. But the greatest of these is love. (4) Love is greater in its nature. It brings us closer to God, makes us partakers of his nature. It is the one thing with which faith and hope are of little avail. (5) It is powerful as an incentive for good and the strongest motive for the upbuilding of character.

AT THE BOOKER WASHINGTON

The Mills-Frisby Company in "A Night at the Cabaret," have a snappy, gingery musical comedy at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. There are only five members in the cast, but they possess enough talent and variety to round out the time with an entertaining program of specialties.
Mr. Mills is a comedian of the first class and makes a hit with his humorous talk and actions. Miss Frisby is a sweet singer and excellent dancer. There are plenty of tinsel melodies and sprightly dances and the entire performance goes over nicely and secures several accolades.

REISSERS OF BELLEVILLE ON SATURDAY; LELAND GIANTS ON SUNDAY; FOSTER'S AMERICAN GIANTS MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY ARE SCHEDULED TO MEET MILLS TEAM AT FEDERAL PARK.

The St. Louis Giants have a strenuous schedule ahead of them for the coming week. On Saturday the Reissers of Belleville will cross bats with the Federal Park boys. Sunday, Leland's Chicago Giants will be the visitors and Rube Foster's American Giants will open a four game series on Monday. All games will start at 3:15. The prices will remain the same: bleachers 25c, grand stand 55c, boxes 15c extra. Women will be admitted free on Monday and Thursday.

Just as we predicted, our boys got going good in the Lincoln Stars' series and won 4 out of the 5 games. They are now on edge and can be expected to even up matters with the Reissers' world champions in the series which starts Monday.

The Lelands are liable to spring a surprise, Sunday, but they will not catch Wallace and Company napping. On Sunday, Aug. 13, Manager Mills will offer the fans an extra attraction in the shape of a dress parade and inpection of the 1st Regt. Uniform Band, K. of P. in command of Col. E. J. Biley, Brig. Gen. W. H. Butler and the Brigade staff of Missouri will be present.

Twilight Sleep AT THE COMET TUESDAY

"Twilight Sleep," the sensational moving picture demonstration of birth control, will be shown at the Comet on Tuesday, August 8. In order to comply with the censorship, children under 10 years will not be admitted to the theatre. Only ladies will be admitted from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. and men and women from 3 p. m. to 11 p. m. A lady will lecture all day on the pictures.

A scene of Prussia, Germany. The birthplace of Twilight Sleep. The expectant mother is put to sleep. The heart of the infant examined before each injection of Scopolamine. Ampule containing Scopolamine which produces Twilight Sleep. The darkened room, cotton placed in patient's ears, filling the hypodermic syringe with scopolamine, injection of scopolamine in thigh of patient, second stage of Twilight of all the latest popular songs, jokes and dances on the vaudeville stage, including some novelties new to St. Louis theatre goers, such as His Heavy Heart, the contortionist fire eater who among other things, severs a red hot iron with his teeth. Miss Beatrice (Billy) West, a St. Louis girl, is with the company. The Reissers' is a long cherished ambition of Butler May (String Beans) and the company is creating a sensation wherever it appears.

The best of order will be maintained on the grand excursion to Peoria, Ill. Two dollars and twenty-five cents round trip.

Battling Ball, of St. Louis, and Leo Patterson, of Joplin, fought six rounds to a draw, at St. Charles, Mo., July 29, before a large crowd. Many die were present. Both boys were lightweight.

A pickpocket has been fined $25 and costs for stealing $46. Unless they can increase their revenues, the pickpockets will hardly be able to meet the cost of operation.

It is predicted that aerial yachts will soon be carrying passengers across the Atlantic. The man who dreams said he is willing to await the advent of the aerial yacht.

The predominant human trait invariably impels the man with the cash to offer the man without what he thinks necessary will force him to accept rather than what the property is worth.

Dr. L. O. Howard, the government entomologist, says there is no reason why people should not eat bugs, but we have tasted some chestnuts and believe that would have convinced him of his error.

If there were no other reason for improving the grade of match cattle in the vicinity of American cities, the one that links the sustenance of insects with the quality and supply of cows' milk would be sufficient.

Modernism seems to be a form of civilization in which married women improve the grade of match cattle by giving warning of the unsuspected approach of a strong German column. This terrible idea has been met and is proving his right to the title.

Three French war dogs were recently decorated with gold collars in reward for distinguished service. One of them having saved a whole battalion by giving warning of the unsuspected approach of a strong German column. This terrible idea has been met and is proving his right to the title.

Sleep, patient watched closely. Blue glasses enhance Twilight Sleep effect materially, tranquility shown on face of patient, bandage over eyes subjected to blue glasses. Sound of street organ reaches patient without ill effect, showing the difference in the natural birth mother, fourth stage of Twilight Sleep. The memory tests: Remembering flowers denotes another injection is necessary. Patient has forgotten flowers. No more injections necessary. The birth, it's a boy, mother unconscious of birth is finally shown her baby. Two hours later patient is able to telephone her husband. Twenty-four hours later the mother is able to walk, five days later she is able to walk up stairs, ten days later natural mother makes first feeble effort to walk. And many others equally interesting and instructive.

"Senatorial courtesy" is what keeps one statesman from hitting another statesman below the belt.

Holding a man that is dead set upon fighting is almost as unsatisfactory as holding an excited tomcat.

As soon as man has liberated a strange idea he'll walk three blocks to find somebody to try it on.

Though there is a dearth of good jokes there should result no disastrous consequences to the human race.

Nations are like men. They start out lick somebody and wind up with a struggle to keep from getting licked.

It is the easiest thing in the world for a girl to find a bridegroom, but if she is looking for a real husband, that is different.

What has become of the old-fashioned girl whose only experience of candied sweets was derived from the annual "asses candy" party?

Evidently it was in accordance with some quaint oriental custom that Hon. Yuen Shi Kai died "surrounded by his wives and other children."

But maybe the encyclopedias of the future can tell whether Hon. Yuen Shi Kai was a president or an emperor at the moment of his death.

"When Does a Woman Buy?" is the subject of an advertising treatise. You can see, don't you, that the advertising experts know who gets the pay envelopes.

Ladies Attended.

NOTE—These calling for passages, spiritisms and frivolous persons are not worth time calling on Prof. Gladstone. Strongly recommending are the words that come from the mediumship of this most interesting man whose journey of life has been taken him through all the renowned psychic schools of Egypt, India and Europe. It seems, indeed, as if his knowledge comes from that great world of which we all would know, you longed, cannot know. He looks far away into the dim mysterious future, the great beyond—across the dark chasm which separates the human body from the fitting soul—and that which is to be told. The future is before him.
